Conference on Cooperative Federalism, Globalization, and Democracy
Brasilia, Brazil. 9-11 May 2000

SPEECHES
Conference on Cooperative Federalism, Globalization, and Democracy
Brasilia, Brazil. 9-11 May 2000

Opening Remarks.
By Ralph Lysyshyn, President of the Forum of Federations

Globalization, Federalism and Governance.
By Earl H. Fry, Professor of Political Science and Endowed Professor of Canadian Studies, Brigham Young University, USA

Unity without Uniformity: Federalism in the United States.
By Carole Hillard, Lt. Governor of South Dakota, USA

German Federalism, the Subsidiarity Principle, and the European Union.
By Gerhard Lehmbruch, Universität Konstanz, Germany

By George Mathew, Director, Institute of Social Science, India.

Can Federal States Survive the Twin Tensions of Regionalism and Globalization?
By Ian Peach, Senior Policy Advisor, Cabinet Planning Unit, Executive Council, Government of Saskatchewan, Canada

Federalism and Regional Equity: Building Partnerships or Transfer Dependencies?
By Anwar Shah, World Bank

Forum of Federations / Forum des fédérations forum@forumfed.org