

Report on International Forum on Federalism in Mexico

The Forum of Federations and the Mexican government worked together to organize this major international conference from 15-17 November 2001. More than 1000 people took part – the majority of them practitioners from Mexico. Mexican President Vicente Fox opened the conference.