

International Conference on Federalism Mont-Tremblant, October 1999

List of Background Papers – Mont Tremblant 1999

In order to facilitate discussion during the Mont-Tremblant conference, the Forum commissioned a series of papers. The papers themselves were not discussed during the conference sessions, but served as a means to provide background, and to place the session topics in context.

Ronald L. Watts

Professor Emeritus of Political Science,
Institute of Intergovernmental Relations,
Queen's University

CSD Roundtable:
Models of Federal Power Sharing

Thomas Fleiner

President of the Federalism Institute,
University of Fribourg

CSD Roundtable:
Models of Federal Citizenship
Rights

John Kincaid

Professor of Government and Public Service, Lafayette College

EFF: Roundtable:
Economic Policy Making:
Advantages and Disadvantages of the Federal Model

Bev Dahlby

Director of the Institute for Public
Economics at the University of Alberta

EFF Roundtable:
Taxing Choices

David Cameron

Professor of Political Science,
University of Toronto

IGR Roundtables:
Structures of Intergovernmental Institutions

Brian Opeskin

Senior Lecturer, Law Faculty,
University of Sydney

IGR Roundtables:
Mechanisms for Intergovernmental Relations

Peter J. Spiro

Associate Professor, School of Law, Hofstra University

CSD Roundtable:
Immigration and Migration

Ferran Requejo

Professor, Political Science,
Universitat Pompeu Fabra

CSD Roundtable:
National Groups

Robin Boadway

Professor of Economics,
Queen's University

EFF Roundtable:
Burden Sharing of Dividing the Spoils

John Whalley

Professor of Economics,
University of Western Ontario

EFF Roundtable:
Globalization and the Decline of the Nation State

Michael Crommelin

Dean of Law, University of Melbourne

IGR Roundtables:
Dispute Resolution

Roger Gibbins

Professor of Political Science, University of Calgary

IGR Roundtable:
Local Government / International
Cities

David Hawkes

Former Co-Director of Research for Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples

IGR Roundtable:
Indigenous Peoples: Self Government and Intergovernmental Relations

Allan A. Warrack

IGR Roundtable:

Professor of Business, University of Alberta The role of the Private Sector and Intergovernmental Relations

Susan Philips

Professor of Public Administration,
Carleton University

IGR Roundtable:
The role of Non-Governmental Organizations in Intergovernmental Relations

Lucia Avelar

Professor of Political Science, University of Brasilia

CSD Roundtable:
Regional Diversity

Daniel Elazar

Director, Centre for the Study of Federalism, Temple University

CSD Roundtable:
Religious Diversity

Robert Brown

Past Chairman,
Pricewaterhouse Coopers

EFF Roundtable:
Coping with Multi-Level
Government: The View from the Private Sector

James Bickerton

Professor of Political Science,
St. Francis Xavier University

EFF Roundtable:
Regional Economic Development:
Building Partnerships or Transfer Dependencies?

Richard Simeon

Professor of Political Science, University of Toronto

IGR Roundtables:
Adaptability and Change in Federations

Earl Fry

Professor of Political Science and Endowed
Professor of Canadian Studies
Brigham Young University

IGR Roundtable:
Internationalization, Globalization and Federal Systems

Christine Fletcher

Director,
North Australia Research Unit,
The Australian University

CSD Roundtable:
Indigenous Peoples

Subrata Mitra

Chairman of the Department of Political Science, South Asia Institute, University of Heidelberg

CSD Roundtable:
Linguistic Diversity

Peter Whiteford

Senior civil servant at the Commonwealth
Department of Social Security, Canberra

SPF Roundtable:
Reconciling Equity and Decentralization: Income
Security

Cecilia Braslavsky

Director of Education Investment and Development Federal Ministry of Education

SPF Roundtable:
Reconciling Equity and Decentralization: Education

Ade Lucas

Professor in Health/Economies, Harvard

SPF Roundtable:
Reconciling Equity and Decentralization: Health

Daniel Weinstock

TOWARD A NORMATIVE THEORY OF FEDERALISM
Department of Philosophy
University of Montreal